Description

A New Zealand built icon is available for purchase. 105ft superyacht Pacific Mermaid has been in the same family since built and has hosted the who is who of international visitors as well as being a VIP host boat to 2 America's cup events. She is ready for the 2021 AC36 with a current survey limit for 80 guests, extendable to 100. The Premier of China was entertained in 2017 along with other Prime Ministers, A-list actors, Sports stars, and UN delegates over its 24-year distinguished charter history. Recent blockbuster 'The Meg' with Jason Statham, Lee Bing Bing and NZ's own Cliff Curtis was filmed aboard in the Hauraki Gulf.

She has explored the Pacific on its own hull and been shipped to Europe and back, as far north as Sweden, east to Turkey, Italy and Denmark.

Expansive full beam salon in timeless mahogany, matched with neutral soft furnishings that have been replaced every 5-10 years.

4 staterooms sleep 8 guests, 3 crew cabins with bunks for 5. Well set up to be operated by a couple. Separate galley adjacent to the formal dining room.

The twin MAN 1000hp V10 diesels that are de-rated to 560hp were re-built 2015-2016, and give 10kts cruise speed, 13 tops. Her twin gensets are well serviced along with her extensive equipment to meet MOSS survey requirements. Ocean going tankage of 22500 litres with 6500 litres of water capacity.
